Autumn Events

HUNTER BARNES - OUTSIDE OF LIFE

David Hill Gallery, W10/until 29 Nov
 Documentary photographer Hunter Barnes made his name photographing individuals on the fringe of society, including bikers, Bloods and prison inmates, and it's these people who form the basis of his solo exhibition, Outside of Life: Lowriders, Coolers, Bikers and Bloods. Pictured above is 'Fred, Espanola, Chimayo, New Mexico'.

THE FLOAT LIKE A BUTTERFLY BALL

The Grosvenor House Hotel/16 Nov
 The Float Like A Butterfly Ball offers the chance to mingle with world champion boxers, celebrities and billionaires all for a good cause: Caudwell Children. The white collar boxing charity gala is hosted by Kirsty Gallacher and sponsored by Ewing Law. Tickets start from £350, or £3,000 for a table of ten.

HOLLYWOOD RELOADED

HOFA Gallery, W1S/1-14 Oct
 This thought-provoking exhibition sees Terry O'Neill's iconic portraits of Hollywood icons reworked by Bran Symondson. The powerful images feature legends such as Michael Caine and Brigitte Bardot holding guns, but with real bullet holes to deliver the message of peace and beauty over war and hate.

Telegraph Ski and Snowboard Festival 2019

FROM THURSDAY 24 to Sunday 27 October, Battersea Evolution will be transformed into a magical alpine arena to host The Telegraph Ski & Snowboard Festival 2019. The four-day festival unites ski, winter sports and destination experts – and is packed full of information for novices and ski fanatics. The event has taken inspiration from some of the best large-scale ski celebrations in the mountains to create an exciting version right here in London. At Mount Battersea, the UK's largest real snow Big Air, top athletes will show epic tricks descending from the top of the 50ft kicker. The festival also features an ice rink, dog sledding and mini action sports zone as well as resorts and tourist boards, mountain retailers and a vintage ferris wheel. ■
 Tickets start from £21.65 per person. For more info or to book, go to SKIANDSNOWBOARD.CO.UK
