

ZHUANG HONG YI AT HOFA

HOFA Gallery is launching its new flagship space on Bruton Street on March 18. The state-of-the-art space will open with an inaugural exhibition of sculptural paintings by Zhuang Hong Yi. "From this year, we will be in a better position to bring the most exceptional contemporary artworks to the world's stage, and create lasting success for the artists who created them and our collectors who acquire them," says HOFA co-founder Elio D'Anna.
11 Bruton Street

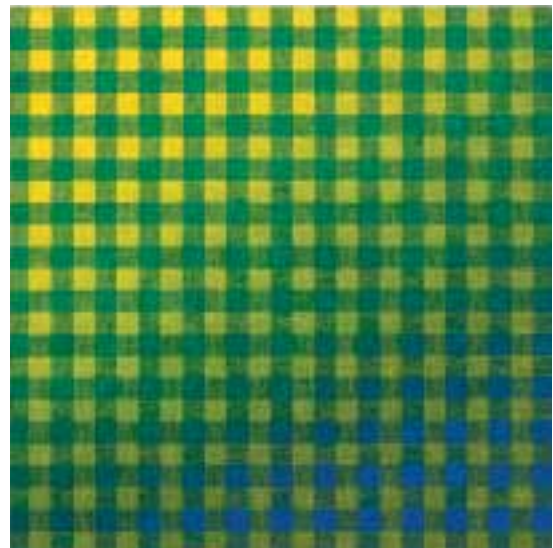

GOODMAN GALLERY

Goodman Gallery is exhibiting the first London solo exhibition in two decades of Iranian-born, New York-based artist, Shirin Neshat. Neshat's past work often focused on the religion and politics of the Iranian Islamic revolution. Land Of Dreams is a portrait of contemporary America under the Trump administration.
26 Cork Street

A NEW DAWN

Visit HOFA's new space to see works by Zhuang Hong Yi, or take in a portrait of Trump's America at Goodman Gallery

WORDS REYHAAN DAY

WHITE CUBE

Dutch-born, American artist Peter Schuyff is exhibiting a selection of works made in the 1980s at White Cube Mason's Yard, from March 13 to May 9. Traditional techniques meld with geometric patterns, a style Schuyff developed in the artistic hotbed of 1980s Manhattan.
25-26 Mason's Yard

LONDON ART WEEK

Collectors, curators and art lovers from around the world will be able to explore many of the capital's most illustrious art galleries during London Art Week's summer edition, with a series of shows and talks taking place from July 2 to 10. More than 40 international dealers and auction houses will offer art at locations across Mayfair and St James's.
londonartweek.co.uk

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP: ZHUANG HONG YI, UNTTITLED, 2019; PETER SCHUYFF, UNTTITLED, 1986. © THE ARTIST; EDWIN LORD WEEKS. STUDY OF A MOUNTED ARAB WARRIOR; SHIRIN NESHAT, MANUEL MARTINEZ, FROM LAND OF DREAMS SERIES. COURTESY THE ARTIST AND GOODMAN GALLERY